VITICULTURE

Monovarietal of Treixadura from our vineyard "Porto", where Bodegas La Val also harvests Loureiro and Albariño. The estate is located in Salvaterra parish, beside the River Minho, and has deep alluvial soils, with the presence of numerous boulders that provide coolness in summer and warmth in maturation.

WINEMAKING

Grapes harvested in boxes of 20 kg, destalked and soft pressing, racking of the must and later fermentation with autochthonous yeasts with controlled temperature of 16 °C during 30 days.

TASTING NOTES

Color: lemon yellow with greenish flashes, clean and very bright.

Nose: Delicate and elegant, flowers and white fruit on a background of Atlantic herbs, frank and good intensity.

In the mouth: Fresh and fruity, good balance and extract with balsamic notes that last in a long and fresh finish.

SOMMELIER RECOMENDATIONS

Perfect with all kinds of seafood and fish, as well as fresh cheese, foie-grass, chicken, rice dishes and pasta. Best enjoyed at 12°C.

QUALITY AND FOODSTUFFS CERTIFICATES

British Retail Consortium (B.R.C).

AGING POTENTIAL

Ideal consumption in the following two years after the harvest. (Well preserved, our wines progress positively).
